Since 2002, David has served Bond Beebe as its President and Managing Partner. He specializes in providing services to national and international multiemployer funds and labor organizations. David is a charismatic and progressive leader, committed to harnessing the values, imagination, and experience of Bond Beebe's professionals to deliver the creative, personalized service and cost-sensitive solutions that our clients deserve.

He currently serves as Chairman of the Firm's Executive Committee and Board of Directors and also is an active member of the Firm's Audit and Marketing Committees. Highly regarded among his peers for his experience auditing labor organizations and multiemployer benefit plans, David also brings to the table a broad background in financial, forensic and compliance auditing, and management consulting.

Professional Experience

As a Principal in the Firm's Benefit Plan Practice Group, David adheres to a strong client-focused perspective and has developed expertise in all aspects of compliance and financial reporting for international, national and Benefit Funds labor organizations and their related Taft Hartley employee benefit plans.

Beyond being an industry authority on compliance and financial auditing, David performs highly specialized work in forensic and operational auditing, often being called upon to testify as an expert witness. David speaks regularly for the International Foundation of Employee Benefit Plans (IFEBC) and is a former Chair of the IFEBC Professionals Committee and Advisory Director.
