As a principal in Bond Beebe's Alexandria, Virginia office, Don exemplifies the Firm's unwavering commitment to earning our clients' trust and working hard to ensure their success. Since joining the firm in 1987, Don's clients have included a broad range of disciplines including private equity funds, investment partnerships and LLCs, real estate and property management companies, retirement plans, construction contractors, law and consulting firms, wholesale/retail distributors, supply, service and other small business companies, estates, trusts and individual income tax clients. Since 1997, Don has managed the team that operates Bond Beebe's Virginia office.

Professional Experience

Don's broad experience for nearly thirty years with all aspects of business and investment entities has enabled our clients to benefit from his consulting, accounting and tax expertise regarding entity operational, reporting and planning matters. In addition to tax compliance and accounting matters for our clients, Don enjoys the special project aspect of his work assisting management and entity owners with a variety of consulting needs for their business and investment operations.

Don also serves as Executor, Trustee, or advisor for a number of our clients, working with families and business owners addressing their planning needs, assisting them through the wealth transfer process, managing the needs of heirs and beneficiaries, and consulting regarding family matters. Don and his team have experience with many different estate planning vehicles, including family LLCs and Trusts, and work on behalf of our clients to manage the planning, compliance and operational matters associated with these vehicles. Don and his team have also cultivated an expertise in assisting our individual income tax clients with all facets of tax planning, compliance, problem resolution with federal and state tax authorities, and consulting with individual tax clients on a variety of matters, including retirement and financial planning.
